of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-four

Presents . . .

Elon College

An annual publication of the Student Body at Elon College, Elon College, North Carolina, the 1954 PHIPSI CLU was published under the direction of ROGER PHELPS, Editor, and YORK
BRANNOCK, Business Manager; portraits by BRUMFIELD
STUDIO, Charlotte, North Carolina; engraved by CHARLOTTE ENGRAVING COMPANY, Charlotte, North Carolina; and printed and bound by EDWARDS & BROUGHTON, Raleigh, North Carolina.

DEDICATION

More than a half century ago the fires of ambition and consecration burned in the hearts of a comparatively small group of devout men and women. They had visions of the coming years when education would be the determining factor in the trends of our nation. The church so far was the agency of evangelism and the means of inspiration, but little progress had been made in education. The question, then, was what part the church should play in higher education. How else could the principles of religious thinking be established than on the campus of a Christian college?

Following the gleam and guided by Providence, these Christian leaders arose in faith, and out of self-denial, toil, and sacrifice, founded and built Elon College. Dedicated to sound scholarship, Christian teaching, moral living, honest dealing—all of which build strong, stalwart Christian character—our College has labored through the years, bearing bright fruits in the field of Christian higher education.

We, the Class of 1954, catching a glimpse of their heroic labors, sharing in a measure the fruits of their righteous lives, and being reminded of the high principles upon which the College was founded, humbly and gladly dedicate our Annual to the courageous founders of Elon College, our College, and the high principles on which it stands.

Foreword

Elon or The Oak, in Hebrew, was the highly appropriate name ascribed to our college by its founding fathers when, over half a century ago, they conceived of and built this institution. Surveying what was to become, in large part at least, the area to be enclosed by the campus walls, the founders realized that the densely foliated trees on the proposed site represented its distinguishing feature, and they determined early to leave most of them standing. However, due to some oversight during the course of actual construction, the workmen began their labor by indiscriminately cutting down a number of the trees on the southwest side of the campus. Their destructive advance was halted, oddly enough, just before they hewed down a bush whose stem had been wantonly and grotesquely bent. . . . Thanks to someone's foresight, we today have the stately Senior Oak.

Thus, the trees on the campus have remained as the calm, stalwart sentinels of our college's history from its earliest days. The familiar oak symbolizes in every way our work here, for it stands as a model of art, a challenge to science, and philosophically and religiously speaking, as a live embodiment of man's upward striving for knowledge. Indeed, it has useful, symbolic application even down to the numerous life experiences. And finally, with a little imagination, it represents the theme of this book—whether you find it traced in the branches of knowledge or an ordinary board fence!

OUR PRESIDENT

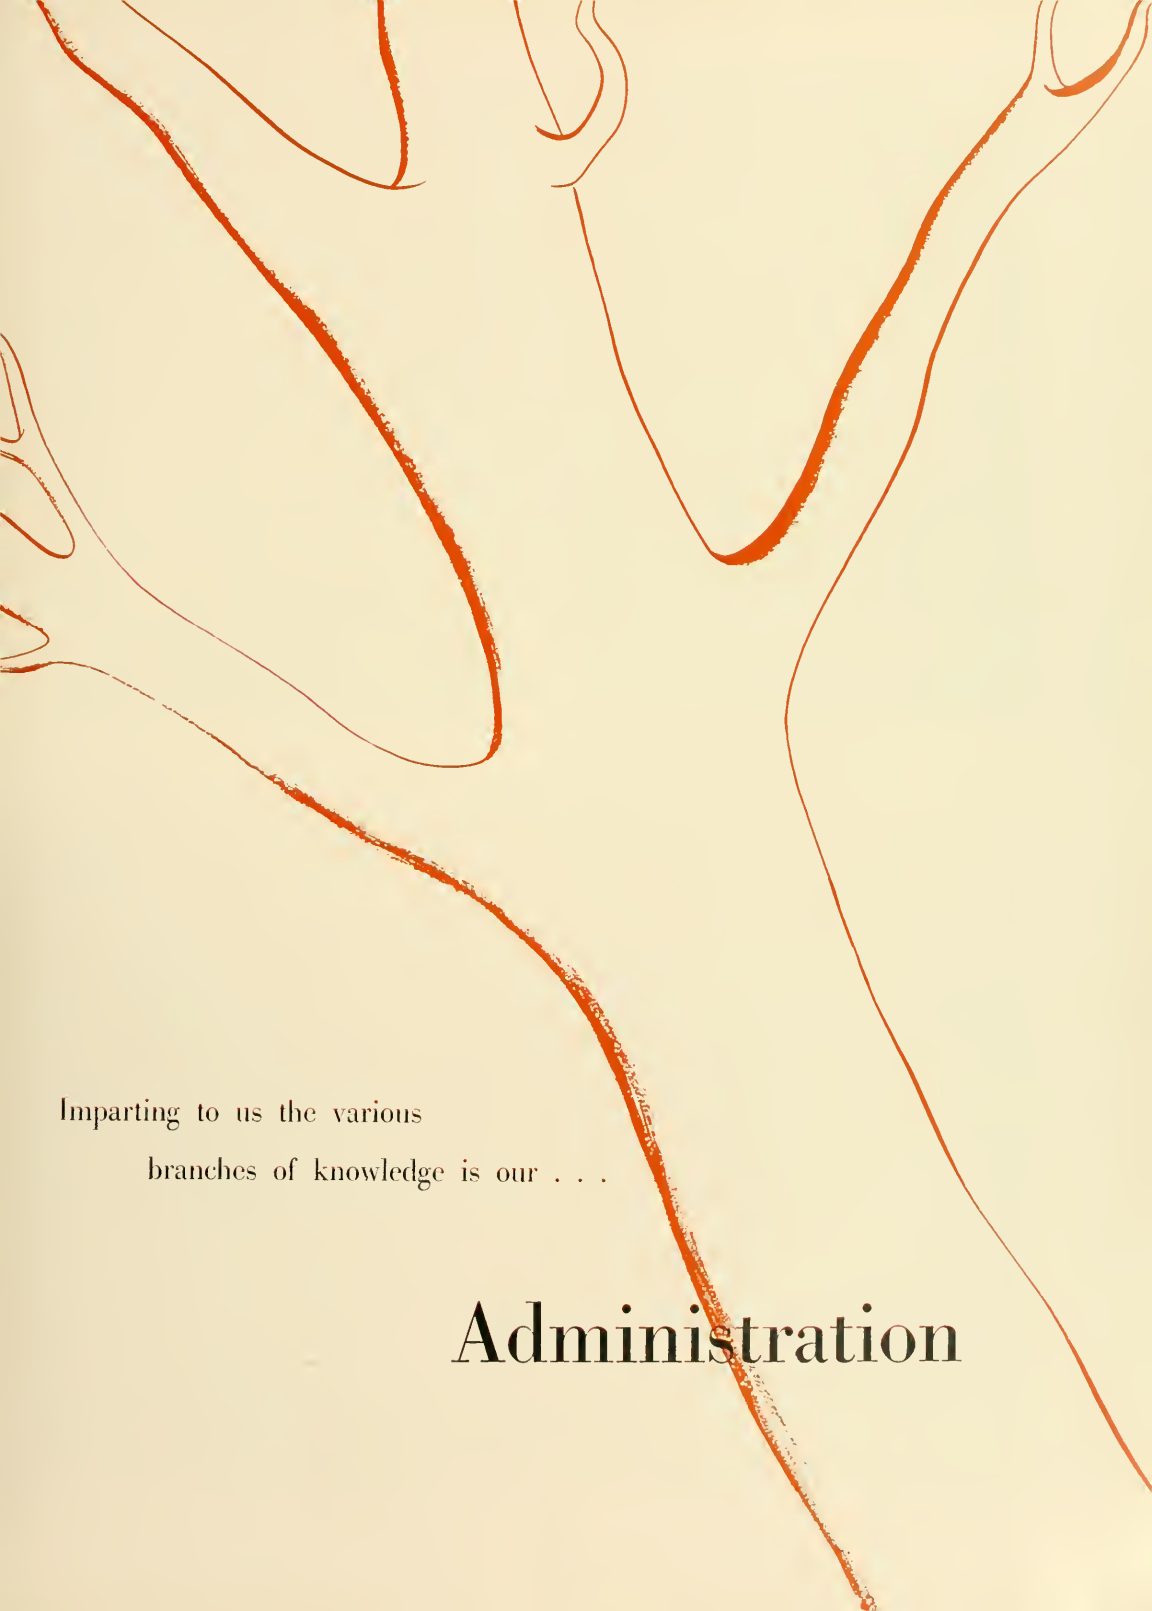

To the Class of 1954:

Fortune and providence have favored you while hundreds and thousands from all parts of the world, about your age, have lost their lives on the battlefields of the world. Yet you have been spared and privileged to remain in College. Now you are approaching Commencement when you will be graduated from college, inspired and better fitted for life and its responsibilities. You may do further studying in universities or launch out in business or professional life. Whatever you do, may your efforts meet with the successes you have achieved in college. As you have found friends and companionship on the campus, may you be as fortunate wherever your paths may lead.

Alma Mater shall watch your steps with interest and eagerness and follow you with prayers and expectations.

L. E. SMITH,
President

The background of the entire page is a light cream or off-white color. Overlaid on this background are several thick, expressive, hand-drawn lines in a vibrant orange-red hue. These lines are abstract and fluid, with some forming loops and others extending across the page. One prominent line starts near the top left, curves down and to the right, then loops back up and to the left. Another line starts near the top right, curves down and to the left, then loops back up and to the right. A third line starts near the bottom left, curves up and to the right, then loops back down and to the left. The overall effect is a sense of organic, flowing movement.

Imparting to us the various branches of knowledge is our . . .

DEANS

To the Class of 1954:

One of the primary purposes for the founding of Elon College was to offer to women and men the opportunities of higher education under religious and moral influences; that remains as one of our primary objectives. It is our sincere hope and our fervent prayer that while you have been here at Elon you have sought diligently for knowledge and that you have found a full measure of it; that you have had religious experiences which have strengthened your faith; and that your growth intellectually, socially and spiritually has helped to prepare you for a life of service to your fellow man and to your God. May He guide, direct, and bless you all of your days.

Sincerely,
J. E. DANIELEY,
Acting Dean

Dear Commencers:

It is reasonable to suppose that you and Elon College have worked together successfully to prepare you for the level of service to your fellow men that can be given by a college graduate. You are, however, going out into a world that is gloomy in outlook. I should, therefore, counsel you to recall frequently these words of St. Paul:

Finally, Brethren,
whatsoever things are true, whatsoever things are just,
whatsoever things are pure, whatsoever things are lovely,
whatsoever things are of good report;
if there be any virtue, and if there be any praise, think on these things.

Sincerely yours,
ALICE MARION BLACK,
Dean of Women

HONOR COUNCIL

From the four classes of the Student Body are elected the six members of the Honor Council. Guardian of the Honor Code, through the functions of the Council's judicial responsibilities, this body of peers hears cases of academic and campus derelictions.

STUDENT COUNCIL

The members of the Student Council include representatives of both men and women students, with one member elected from the Student Body at large. The Council has the final jurisdiction in all cases involving offenses against the Student Body.

INTERDORMITORY COUNCILS

The Women's and the Men's Interdormitory Councils hold parallel purposes and responsibilities, as they strive to cope with the manifold duties and problems that fall under their jurisdiction. Representing all men and women students resident on campus, theirs is a job which is comprehensive in scope and which proffers daily responsibilities.

LEGISLATURE

Supreme law-making power is vested in this truly representative body, the Legislature of the Student Government. Members of the body are elected by classes, dormitory residents, and the Day Students.

WHO'S WHO

One of the highest honors given to any student at Elon College is that of being listed in the annual publication Who's Who Among Students in American Universities and Colleges.

Who's Who serves a four-fold purpose: it is a commendation to a student for his success in college, both scholastic and social; a recommendation to the business world; a standard measurement for students; and an incentive for students to get the most out of their college careers.

Our congratulations go out to the eight recipients of the honor—all of them Seniors—who won for themselves this extra bit of distinction.

of Nineteen Hundred and Fifty-Four

This publication marks the forty-first year since the inception of the PhiPsiClub on the Elon campus. Its purpose is to provide, through picture and print, a permanent record of many of the activities at Elon during the year. Concomitantly, it also provides an opening for student talent in the myriad tasks that the production of the book presents. Invariably, however, these same tasks prove to be challenging ones, for many problems must be overcome if the seemingly all-too-illusive goal is ever to be reached. Upon the outcome—at last!—we do feel that in spite of everything, the experience has been worth it all.

MAROON

The Maroon and Gold, official newspaper of the college campus, is published by and for the students of Elon College. This biweekly paper carries news and activities of the campus to students, faculty, and alumni, as well as to surrounding high schools. All publication is done in the college press office by a staff composed of college students along with both the faculty and printing advisers. To earn the satisfaction of giving you what you want in your college paper is the desire of the entire staff of the Maroon and Gold.

COLONNADES

As Elon's annual magazine of college writing, the Colonnades always offers a highly interesting selection of prose, poetry, and jokes. This year, under the able leadership of Cooper Walker and faculty adviser Prof. West, the Colonnades included some very good examples of the high type of creative writing that came from campus pens.

This year's Day Students' Organization is the most active in recent years. The members have been working hard to live up to the objectives of the club, which are to give off-campus students better representation in student governmental affairs, and to create a spirit of harmony between campus and off-campus.

The day students are particularly proud of the loving cup they won for preparing the best float for the Homecoming parade this year, especially since this is the first year that the cup has been awarded.

Being the largest organization on the campus, the Day Students have eight representatives in the Student Legislature, all of whom have been quite active in legislative activities.

But all is not work with the commuters! The Day Students have revived the custom of organization parties and have enjoyed several well-attended and highly successful get-togethers during the past year. Although this might be expected from Elon's largest contingent of students, the Day Students have contributed much to Elon's activities.

The Education Club is a chapter of the Future Teachers of America and is also associated with the National Education Association and the North Carolina Education Association. Its members include those people who plan to enter the teaching profession. The purpose of the club is to cultivate the qualities which are necessary for good teaching and to provide entertainment for its members, and to this end this group sponsors lectures by outstanding educators as well as surveys of school systems.

The College Choir, under the direction of Prof. John Westmoreland, is one of the more active and promising organizations on the campus. Their basic role is the furnishing of music for the weekday chapel programs and the Sunday morning services.

In addition to this, the group gives their annual presentation of Handel's oratorio "The Messiah," before the student body as well as on tour throughout North Carolina and Virginia.

Another high light of the choir functions is the spring tour, which takes in many southern states and goes far north into New England. The Singers travel every year, spreading musical goodwill throughout the East.

This group is composed of music students, along with any others who appreciate good music and really enjoy singing it. Undoubtedly their outstanding contribution has been to win for the college a definite recognition of Elon's rank in the field of music.

ELON BAND

For the past two years, Elon has really been proud of having a band in uniform, which helped immensely to add zip and pep to its football games as well as to its basketball games. Upon consideration of the circumstances surrounding the rejuvenation of this musical group at Elon, the Band, under the able direction of Bernard Jones, made a highly commendable showing of itself this year. Our hats go off to the entire group, and we wish them all success possible for the coming year.

We cannot forget the majorettes, however, for without them a college would certainly be lacking. But we have 'em! . . . and so, in addition, we want to thank our high-stepping twirlers for their good job in contributing an extra bit of spirit to the Band.

As an illustration of the purpose of the group, again this year the Student Christian Association sponsored Christian Emphasis Week which, besides bringing outstanding speakers on campus, concentrated on nightly informal discussions in the dorms. These "bull-sessions"—so styled by the sponsors—were based on questions of practical Christianity and were particularly well-received and well attended this year, as many students took the S.C.A. at its word to "speak out on questions of vital significance."

S.C.A. members will always cherish the meaningful hours spent in regular Sunday evening fellowship meetings with Mr. Bozarth at the Parish House, and the week-end retreats which S.C.A.'ers have enjoyed so much through the years. Also, we should not neglect to mention that the student loan fund maintained by this organization has proved its worth once again throughout the year, and then the vesper services during the week will be remembered by many as perhaps the most vital contribution of this organization.

The Elon College Ministerial Association, which is composed of students who are going into full-time Christian service as a life's calling, is an organization whose basic purpose is to provide training and supply experience that will be of use for its members' future work, and also to be of benefit to the college and surrounding community.

Fellowship, study, and the sharing of ideas and facts that will be of importance to each member in the future are among the objectives of this group.

In this group, which meets weekly and has two devotional meetings during school hours for fellowship with the day students, are several members who hold pastorates in the surrounding area.

A week-end retreat and the Alumni M.A. Banquet are the projects of this group as it works under the leadership of its sponsor, Dr. F. E. Reynolds.

LE CERCLE FRANCAIS

The most popular spot around Elon on Wednesday night is the home of Mrs. McDonald. The reason for this popularity is Le Cercle Francais, which meets there twice monthly. The main purpose of the club is to create a French atmosphere which is both entertaining and educational. The high lights at a regular meeting are usually movies, games, songs, and refreshments.

ELON PLAYERS

This year was marked for the Players as their first under the direction of Professor Charles W. Cox. The first production The Glass Menagerie showed that he has ambitious plans for Elon's budding Thespians. Tennessee Williams' Broadway hit was acclaimed by all who saw it. The second production, Shaw's Pygmalion, confirmed the trend toward plays requiring an even higher quality of acting, while necessitating more difficult production.

Taking up from Mrs. Betty R. Smith, who also ably "coached" our Elon actors, the Players are determined to make their productions consistently better and more enjoyable for the students and the community.

Our thanks go out to the Home Economics Club, who helps with many of the campus activities. This local organization has been affiliated with the American Home Economics Association since 1938. Among their numerous activities for the year, many of us can remember the excellent job of table decoration they did for all the special dinners, such as Thanksgiving and Christmas, and then there were equally good jobs done in the serving of teas and luncheons, and the making of drapes for the sewing room. The purpose of the organization is to increase the knowledge of students of home economics in practical ways of home management.

of modern office equipment as well as by inspection tours of various business organizations.

The club generally meets weekly, and approximately one meeting a month usually features a dinner with guest speakers and entertainers, who provide enlightenment and enjoyment for the group. This organization has proved to be an asset on the campus.

COACH "DOC" MATHIS

COACH "SID" VARNEY
Head Football Coach

THE "FIGHTING CHRISTIANS"

COACH VARNEY

Coach Varney is a newcomer to the North State Conference, although he is not new to North Carolina. It was down at the University that he was a guard on the football teams of the Justice era. His first year here was a little disappointing for him, but we feel that within a few years he'll have the Fighting Christians right up on top.

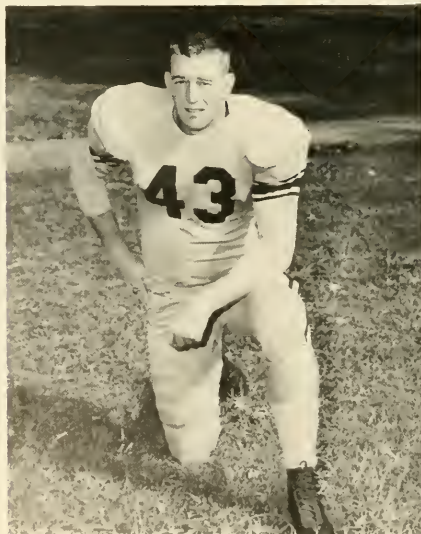

COACH MATHIS

"Doc" is a veteran in North State coaching circles, who has produced many fine athletic teams. Facing the basketball season with one returning letterman, "Doc" and his team pulled the upset of the North State Tournament by downing a favored Western Carolina team in the first round. It's things such as that that have put him close to hearts of Elon Students.

CO-CAPTAINS

PLATT

COACH SCOTT BOYD

We here at Elon feel very fortunate in securing the services of Prof. Boyd as head of our Physical Education Department. As head of the department, he has guided and directed the physical education program and intramural athletics.

The 1953 edition of the Fighting Christians faced the opening of the season with that "new" look. Indeed it was new, for at the helm was Sid Varney, who replaced Jim Mallory as the guiding light of football destinies here at Elon. Sunny Jim had departed to become assistant coach down at East Carolina, and we brought in "The Toy Bulldog" of the Justice era down at Carolina. Coach Varney came to Elon from Presbyterian and faced the task of rebuilding the squad, as he was left with only four seniors and five juniors.

With the return to the one-platoon system some of our lettermen were replaced by the Frosh. The seniors, John Platt, Dwight Dillon, and Marvin Moss distinguished themselves in their final year for the Maroon and Gold gridders.

The PhiPsiChi joins with the entire student body in paying tribute to Co-Capt. John Platt, who was selected to the All-Conference team and who later was drafted by the San Francisco 49'ers.

ELON 0 WOFFORD 33

Taking full advantage of miscues by a youthful Elon football squad, the powerful Wofford Terriers pounded out a 33 to 0 victory over the Christians in Spartanburg, S. C., in a muddy battle in a steady downpour of rain. Despite the top-heavy score and the Wofford rushing total of 229 yards, the Elon line played fine defensive ball most of the game.

ELON 19 APPALACHIAN 21

The running of Shirley Gabriel and Don Hiatt, veteran Appalachian backfield stars, proved too much for Elon's Christians, and the two enemy aces led the Mountaineers down from the hills of Boone to defeat a fighting but unfinished Elon grid squad 21 to 19 in a hair-raising battle in Burlington Memorial Stadium on Saturday night, October 3. Despite the defeat at the hands of the Mountaineers, the Elon eleven showed a tremendous improvement over its previous week's game.

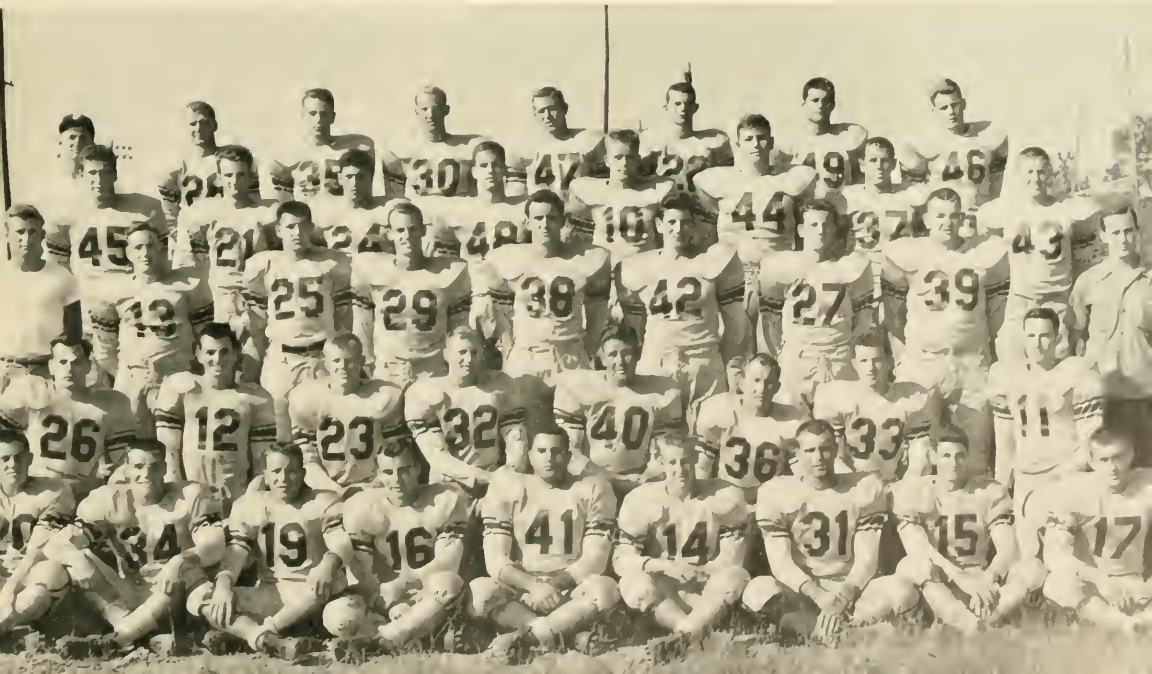

ELON 25 EAST CAROLINA 45

Two high-geared offensive machines fought it out as the East Carolina Pirates defeated the Elon Christians 45 to 25 in a North State Conference gridiron battle in Greenville on Saturday night, October 10. The game climaxed East Carolina's "Homecoming" festivities and furnished thrills galore for eight thousand fans. Revell Morrison and John Platt were the outstanding runners for the Christians, while Platt and Bill Snyder shared the passing honors for Elon, but the entire squad showed improvement and played an unusually hard game.

ELON 21 CATAWBA 21

The Elon Christians continued to display terrific offensive power in their annual battle with the Catawba Indians in a 21-21 tie, as the Indians came from behind with a touchdown in the final three minutes of play. A see-saw battle was waged for the three remaining periods with Carter scoring in the final period, followed by Stratton's placement that knotted the score for Catawba. Joe Smith, Gene Williams and Mel Bennett were outstanding in the line play.

ELON 13 WESTERN CAROLINA 7

When Jerry Akromas, one of Elon's alternating quarterbacks, sneaked over from the one-yard line late in the second quarter and provided the Fighting Christians with their second touchdown against Western Carolina, he also provided the ultimate winning margin, as the Elon eleven won its first victory of the season over the hapless and winless Catamounts. At the end of the second period, however, Garrison scored for the Catamounts. The game was played before 1,500 Homecoming Day fans at Burlington Memorial Stadium and was billed as a battle of non-winners. The last half proved to be a defensive show, with the rival lines rising to meet the occasion whenever the enemy threatened. Outstanding on offense for the Christians were Revell Morrison, Bill Snyder and Whitney Bradham, while Homer Hobgood, Glenn Varney and Joe Smith were defensive stars for the night.

ELON 6 NEWBERRY 33

The Newberry Indians came to Burlington Memorial Stadium on November 7, and with them came a very active little sophomore quarterback named Danny Brabham. John Platt intercepted a Brabham pass on his own twenty and returned it to the Elon thirty-eight. The Christians drove the sixty yards for the TD, with Revell Morrison and John Platt leading the way. Jerry Akromas capped the drive when he sneaked over from the one. Marvin Moss and Whitney Bradham were defensive standouts for the Christians.

ELON 13 LENOIR-RHYNE 27

A crew of fleet-footed Elon backs got the yardage, but an alert and hard charging Lenoir-Rhyne eleven grabbed opportune breaks to get the points, and the Mountain Bears defeated the Fighting Christians 27 to 13 in their annual North State Conference grid battle in Hickory on Saturday night, November 14. Nevertheless, no less than nine Elon backs shared in the ball-toting, as Coach "Sid" Varney's outfit rolled with explosive strength for a net total of 343 yards rushing, compared with the Bears' net of 145 yards rushing. Platt, Snyder, Morrison, Male, Michaux and Richards were the outstanding Christians for the night.

ELON 0 GUILFORD 9

The Guilford Quakers copped all the dressing to go with their Thanksgiving turkey when they made the most of a pair of breaks to defeat the Christians 9 to 0 on their annual Thanksgiving Day gridiron meeting on Thursday afternoon, November 26. The game was almost entirely a defensive one, as neither team could show much offensive power all afternoon. Wayne Martin, freshman end, turned in several sparkling bits of defensive play for Elon, and Joe Smith did a fine job at guard for the Christians.

The Fighting Christian basketball five can rightfully be acclaimed as a good team, a very good one. This team has done very well for itself, when you take into consideration the fact that it lacks the height so much desired for basketball. Also it must be realized that only one of the first six players of last year's squad returned this year. Nevertheless, a young, green quintet took the floor against one of the better teams of North Carolina University, and they played a surprisingly good game, giving warning of great things to come.

Dave Maddox, lanky center, has played sparkling ball for Coach "Doc" Mathis all year. Dave also has been the outstanding rebound artist of the club. Another outstanding performer has been Jack Mitchell, who, though short in height, lacks nothing in fight and hustle. The guard situation on the club was ably taken care of in the persons of Don Packard and Bob Timmons. These high-scoring guards are second and third in the scoring column.

Elon is building for the future. In the next few years we, the students, expect to see great things from this young team.

For the second straight year, the Fighting Christian baseball team won the Eastern Division Championship in the North State Conference. Under the very capable coaching job done by Jim Mallory, the squad had a very impressive win-loss record. Even though Lenoir-Rhyne ran off with the title in the Championship playoffs of the North State Conference—a repeat performance of the previous year's win—the Elon squad put in some very commendable playing.

The leading pitchers were Sherill Hall, Charlie

Swicegood, and Luther Conger, followed by Arthur Mackie, Larry Summers, Ronnie McIntyre, Gene Curtis, and Richard Smith. Regulars of the squad included such outstanding players as Bobby Jones, catcher; Carlton Langston, first; Jimmy Dalton, second; Nick Thompson, short; Bobby Stewart, third; Jack Musten, left field; Don Packard, center field; Carroll Reid, right field; with Alton Myers, Bobby Green, E. B. McDaniel, and Gene Laughlin all seeing considerable action.

Elon's 1953 golf team won two games, while losing ten. The Maroon and Gold linksters played good golf throughout the season, and this year should have a very good squad, which will be hard to beat. Those carrying the colors of Elon were: Smith, Harvey, Cooper, McGriff, Small, Workman.

TENNIS

The Fighting Christian tennis team of 1953 won a total of eight games, while losing ten. The team made an excellent record that year, and the racket-wielders made marked improvement over the record of the 1952 Tennis Team, when only two games were won. In short, we had a top-notch team, which proved that Elon had some real spirit on its side. Left to right, the members are: Blackstone, Howell, Roshelli, Peters, Schrader, Painter, Sears.

JAY-VEE BASKETBALL

Elon's fighting J.V. basketball team completed one of the best records ever turned in by a similar Elon group. Winning fourteen, they lost only two games—to the powerful University of North Carolina freshman team. Under the guidance of "Red" McDaniel, future basketball greats got a thorough training in the fundamentals of the game.

The Elon youngsters, averaging 78.1 points per game, held their opponents to an amazing 58.5 points per game. The members of the team, pictured above, are the very ones who made the J.V.'s such a hard team to beat.

Many of these players will move up to the varsity team next year, and it should bolster the Fighting Christian basketball troupe. It is a warning to the other teams of the Conference that Elon will be a hard-to-beat assailant in the next open season for basketball.

GIRLS' SPORTS

Elon is proud of its well-rounded and versatile girls' sports program, under the very able guidance of Miss Haley. Some of the sports in which the girls take a rather active part are horseback riding, basketball, volleyball, badminton, softball, tennis, archery, and ping-pong.

The girls' basketball league was one of the more popular of the girls' groups. However, that does not mean that interest wasn't high and competition keen in each of the other sports, for all of the activities attracted pretty eager participation. The men by no means have all of the interest in sports, as the varied listing above of girls' sports readily indicates.

INTRA

ALL-CAMPUS TOUCH-FOOTBALL SQUAD

Four strong touch-football squads garnered all the berths on the 1953 all-campus touch-football squad, with the North Dormitory and Carlton House combine leading in the number of honor players, with East Dorm and LTK-South gaining two posts each, followed by Sigma Phi Vets placing one man.

BASKETBALL

The intramural activities are conducted under the guidance of Mr. Boyd, in such a way that everyone will find one or more sports in which he will be able to participate and enjoy. Similar programs are conducted for both men and women.

For the men the program includes touch-football, basketball, volleyball, softball, and tennis, among others. Below are pictured, left to right, (front row): Nick Thompson, Ralph Rakes, Phil Carter, Back: Luther Conger, Bobby Stewart, "Red" McDaniel, Lewis Robertson.

MEN'S INTRAMURAL COUNCIL

Stanley Bunch, Louis Winston, Jimmy Luke, Gilbert Brittle.

Representatives on the Men's Intramural Council are elected from each of the men's dormitories, the fraternities, and the Day Student group. This Council meets, discusses, and plans an intramural sports program that will interest everyone. Touch-football, basketball, softball, tennis, and ping-pong are among the activities sponsored by the Council.

At the end of the year, this group presents trophies to the winning teams and to outstanding individuals.

We owe a hearty thank-you to an almost unrecognized behind-the-scenes worker, known well by all in the "sports department" as Johnnie. . . . Here he is, on the spot!

We proudly remember those among Homecoming was wonderful! But then Elon's Homecoming always is. The alumni turned out; the dance, to the music of the Duke Ambassadors, was successful; Virginia Jernigan was crowned queen, and Yvonne Buff was maid of honor; the dormitories on campus were all decked out, with West Dormitory winning first place in the decorations; the parade was the longest ever; the Day Students won the prize for the best float; and, best of all . . . we won our football game over W.C.T.C.

We congratulate Mrs. Boyd, Alumni Secretary, and the other members on the Homecoming Committee for their very able direction of the Homecoming festivities.

SENIOR ATTENDANTS

As the campus oaks once again don their bare, misshapen branches with new spring leaves, it cannot be doubted that spring has heralded its return. However, Elonites will probably more easily remember the onset of this season by the celebration of May Day. This spring fete was again produced under the direction of the Physical Education Department and joint co-operation of the Music and Home Economics Departments; it was a colorful, musical, and happy pageant, climaxed by the coronation. On the beautiful south campus lawn, Judy Ingram, escorted by Woody Stoffel, was crowned queen to rule over her retinue, led by the maid of honor, Betty Thompson, who was escorted by Dwight Dillon.

An Elon undergraduate having inadvertently changed umbrellas with a fellow-student evolved this note: "Miss— presents her compliments to Miss—, and begs to say that she has an umbrella which isn't mine, so if you have one that isn't hers, no doubt they are the ones."

Ladies, skip this paragraph! It is really unfit for publication. It got into the manuscript by some mistake, and I asked the printer to destroy it, or set it wrong side up.

If there's anything worries a woman,
It's something she ought not to know;
You can bet that she'll find it out somehow.
If you give her the least kind of show.
Now, we'll wager a half to a jinnny
This poem she's already read—
We knew she'd get at it somehow
If she had to stand on her head.
